Picture of Bayne, "Conventionist." [From the Charlottesville Chronicle.] Bayne was decidedly the hero of the Convention. It wouldn't have been a Convention without Bayne. We couldn't have made a Constitution without Bayne. He spoke on an average, the session through, at least seven times every day. He spoke on every question that came up, and generally two or three times. He spoke whenever he could get the floor. He spoke on every point of order that old Bowden raised, and their name was legion. He spoke on all the points of order that Greensville Jones raised. He spoke five times as often as Hodges. He spoke oftener than Yankee Allan. He discussed the Report on Finance-probably made thirty nine or forty speeches on this one subject. He made at least fifty speeches on the Bill of Rights. He spoke on the Preamble to the Bill of Rights a great many times. He spoke on the Division of Powers. He spoke on the Elective Franchise and Qualification for Office. He spoke on the Oyster question. He spoke on the Test Oath question. He spoke on the Judiciary Report. He spoke on all the sections of the Report on the Executive Department. He spoke on the subject of Apportionment and Representation-a speech for every County and every ment of Cities and Towns. He spoke on Normal Schools and Education generally. He spoke on the Militia. He spoke on the Homestead question. He spoke on Usury. He spoke on the Church Property article. He romptly remitted for. spoke on Future Changes in the Constitution. He spoke in reply to Gen. Schofield. He spoke after the Convention adjourned-and he used to go out and harangue the Richmond blacks from the Capitol steps when his time was up in the Convention-and he preached two or three times every Sunday. Bayne is speaking somewhere now. He says "wery." If the Constitution is to be modified before it is submitted, Gen. Schofield ought to put Bayne in it—he ought to discard the old State arms, the Sic Semper Tyrannis, and the man standing up with the spear in his hand-he ought to substitute a full-length portrait of old Bayne in lamp-black, standing, with a Federal musket on his shoulder, on a prostrate white man-the latter exclaiming. "Take your foot off of my neck!"

THE ARC DE TRIOMPHE IN PARIS.—This is the largest triumphal arch in the world. The building of this arch was commenced by Napoleon I. to commemorate the numerous victories of his armies, and was finished by Louis Philippe during his reign. It consists of an enormous arch over one hundred and fifty feet high and two smaller side arches, each about one hundred feet in height. Over the main arch there are beautiful bas-reliefs, one of which represents the departure from Paris of Napoleon's armies and another the return .-The names of the victories of Napoleon cover the arch, but the absence of any in which the armies of England were engaged is noticeable; Waterloo must have acted like a sponge and wiped them all out. On the sides are inscribed the names of several hundred officers who gave up their lives while fighting under Napoleon. There is a narrow and dark staircase within the arch, by means of which, for a small fee, the summit can be reached. Standing as it does upon elevated ground, from the top the most comprehensive and beautiful view of Paris can be obtained. The expense of this memento of war, blood-shed, and devastation has been over two millions of dollars.

The original design has not been fully carried out, as it was intended to be crowned with statuary, which would have added to its beauty.

THE COMING AGONY .- The new style of pants for gentlemen-of course for gentlemen -is to be pictorial. Some represent a quiet landscape in the country, with cattle and sheep browsing near bubbling streams and umbrageous recesses; others picture forth in all the fascinations of festive art, lofty mountain phases in Which peaks lift themselves up and slumber quietly on pillows of the softest clouds; others detail the gay and exhibitanting scenes of the ball-room with ladies in their most beautiful costumes and radiant in the most bewitching graces; and still others give street life, with horse cars, omnibuses, varied vehicles, dogs, mannikins, and other lively photographs of ac tive life. The ladies will find much to admire about the legs and bodies of fashionable gen-Hemen in about two months. This will be a sort of return compliment to the opposite sex, whose pedals have been a source of observation by the male genus since the early days of one Mr. Adam.

A CLERGYMAN'S OPINION.—The pastor of Guano. a church, in Pittsburg, said, a few days ago, that the editor of a daily news raper viewed as the past eighteen months, is attested by numera laborer in a vast field, and ... daily contact ous testimonials of many of the most intelligent with men, deserves the prayers of all good peo-ple, in the tasks to which he puts his brains is, showing that it is superior to many of the this village has been experimenting on chickens with the games. He tried your Poulterers' and his pen. He seeks to elevate and bless fertilizers now offered for sale, and equal to any men, and spite of all the faults attributed to "costing double the money." men, and spite of all the faults attributed to the press, he does clevate and bless them, and no man labors harder, or more constantly, or under more disadvantages, oftentimes, than and certificates of "Rodonda," at my counting he. our regular meals. The A M PRINCE ALFRED, whose attempted assassination is announced from Australia, is Queen's Victoria's fourth child. He was born in 1844, and is consequently now about 24 years of age. From his earliest years he has been regarded as the most intelligent and sensible of the royal lamily, and has been far more popular with the English people than any other of the Queen's children. He holds the rank of Duke of Edinot yet visited the United States.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.— Young persons are too apt to commit excesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the Frame, Consumption, Decay and Death.

DR. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospit-als of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately. TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE. Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which ruin both body and mind, unfitting them for either business, study, society or marriage. These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c. MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced. Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, ner-vous and emacated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms of Consumption. YOUNG MEN, Who have injured themselves by a certain practice, indulged in, a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and, if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contem-

MARRIAGE, reflect that a sound mind and body are the mos! necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage; the prosp ct hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own.

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to these, who, from education and respectability, can alone befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated screthroat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs. dimness I sight, deafness, nodes on the shinbones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commisserative will be the surface of the most of the surface tion, till death puts a period to his dreadful suf ferings, by sending him to "that Undiscovered Country from whence no traveller returns." It is a MELANCHOLY FACT that thousands fall victims to this terrible disease, owing to the unskilfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that DEADLY POISON, MF R-

CURY, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable. DR. JOHN: JN, OFFICE, No. 7, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
